

FUTURE MINDS. THE METAPHYSICS AND ETHICS OF AI

Ernst Mach Workshop VIII

Programme:

June 12

- 10:00 – 11:30 Susan Schneider (University of Connecticut),
“Could you Merge with AI?”
- 11:30 – 12:10 Judit Szalai (Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest), “Future Minds and
the Philosophy of Mind”
- 12:10 – 02:00 Lunch
- 02:00 – 02:40 François Kammerer (Université Catholique
de Louvain), “I Am Not a Self Yet,
but I Might Become One”
- 02:40 – 03:20 Sonia de Jager (Erasmus University, Rotterdam), “Building Boundless, Reasonable Machines”
- 03:20 – 03:30 Coffee Break
- 03:30 – 04:10 Deke Gould (Augustana College, Rock Island, IL), “Future Minds and Anti-Natalism”
- 04:10 – 04:50 Robin Kopecký – Michaela Košová (Charles University, Prague), “How Young Minds
See Future Minds”
- 05:00 – 07:00 Banquet

Keynote Speakers:

Prof. Susan Schneider
Prof. Mark Coeckelbergh

June 13

- 10:00 – 11:30 Mark Coeckelbergh (University of Vienna), “AI Ethics: Ethical Issues and Policy Challenges”
- 11:30 – 12:10 László Bernáth (Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest), “Defending the Standard Approach
about Moral Status”
- 12:10 – 02:00 Lunch
- 02:00 – 02:40 Allan McCay (University of Sydney and Macquarie University), “Brain-Computer Interfaces and the Future of Criminal Law”
- 02:40 – 03:20 Frank Rösl (German Cancer Research Center, Heidelberg), “CRISPR-Cas: Social Impact and the Use of Artificial Intelligence
in Personalized Medicine”
- 03:20 – 03:30 Coffee Break
- 03:30 – 04:10 Caterina Moruzzi (University of Nottingham), “Intentionality and Creativity
in AI-Generated Music”
- 04:10 – 04:50 Tomáš Hříbek (Czech Academy of Sciences),
“Can Machines Create Art?”